—Rev. Mary Beth McCandless, Pastor, First Presbyterian Church, Evansville, Indiana

CONGREGATIONAL GUIDE

The Congregational Guide provides materials for any church leader to make connections with the practice, congregational worship, and everyday life. Faith communities with a limited educational program may use this resource to plan a congregational focus on each practice. The Congregational Guide includes:

Foundational Essay

Each practice contains a foundational essay written by a biblical or theological scholar. The essay provides a deep dive into the practice—where it is found in the Bible and how the community has practiced it then and now. An aspect or dimension of the practice for each session is highlighted along with biblical texts that illuminate it. Preachers may wish to develop a sermon series based on these texts. Adults and leaders seeking more depth may wish to read these essays. They are included in each leader's guide and the Adult Reflection Guide.

Worship Helps

Two-sided page for each session offers hymns and songs, ideas for ways to incorporate the practice into worship, and suggestions for parts of the worship liturgy.

Café Discussion Guides

Each session includes a two-sided page with activities and discussion prompts. These no-prep, easy-to-lead sessions are perfect for college groups, young adults, women's and men's groups, and church sessions or councils.

Intergenerational Session

Each unit features one intergenerational session that can be used with the whole church family before, during, or at the end of each unit.

Practicing the Practice at Home

A two-sided reproducible page for each unit facilitates practicing the practice with the whole family. The Young Children Leader's Guide and Multiage Children Leader's Guide also include this helpful tool.

Children's Worship Leaflets

For each session of the unit, a two-sided reproducible page includes ideas for practicing the practice, a puzzle or game, an adapted Bible story, and a coloring picture.

LEADER'S GUIDES FOR ALL AGES

Session Plan

The flow of the session is the same for all ages and the intergenerational session found in the Congregational Guide.

- Getting Started provides an opening ritual for each session.
- Introducing the Practice invites participants to encounter an aspect of the practice.
- Finding the Practice in the Bible explores how the practice was lived by Jesus (Gospels), understood by his faith tradition (Hebrew Scriptures), and carried on by his followers (New Testament).
- Finding the Practice All around Us (for children) or Finding the Practice Then and Now (for older age groups) names how the practice has been lived out by Christians through the centuries and where we see it today in our worship, community, and world.
- Practicing the Practice provides activities to live out this practice in our daily lives.
- Following Jesus sends participants out to follow Jesus.

ADULT REFLECTION GUIDE

Think of the Adult Reflection Guide as a workbook or journal. It is filled with information about the practice, engaging adults through study, reflection questions, space for writing or drawing, and suggestions for practicing the practice. It is available in print from PC(USA) Store or as an ebook on Amazon.

The Adult Reflection Guide may be used as a self-guided study or in an adult study group along with the Adult Leader's Guide.

INFOGRAPHIC POSTERS

Infographic posters provide additional information to engage learners of all ages. Posters (18" x 24") are available for purchase—as a set of posters (one of each practice each year) in print or download or as individual posters for download only—at bit.ly/FMInfographicPosters.

Unit Overview

Each unit overview helps us remember what the stories are about, how they connect with one another, why they are important to our faith, and how we can continue to wonder about them.

Intergenerational and Home Ideas

These suggestions from the themes of each session enhance worship, enrich educational study, make connections beyond the story, and engage in service opportunities so that children, youth, and adults may grow in faith together.

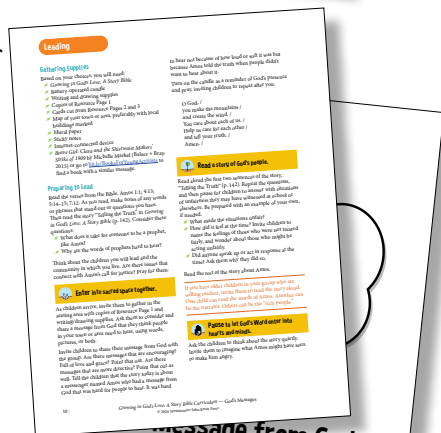

Connecting Pages

In each session, these pages help the leader understand the story and how it relates to today's world, the spiritual lives of children, and the spiritual lives of adults.

Session Pages

Three easy-to-use pages follow the rhythm of the session and include a supply list, preparation tips, and activity variations.

Resource Pages

Black-and-white reproducible resources as well as color pages are included in each unit.

In the rhythm of the session, the children will

-  enter the space together
-  read a story of God's people
-  pause to let God's Word enter into hearts and minds
-  engage curiosity and imagination with God's story
-  wrestle with how they fit in God's story
-  bless one another with God's grace
-  grow with more (additional activities to enrich the session as needed)

THE GOOD FOR NOTHING TREE

Amy-Jill Levine and Sandy Eisenberg Sasso

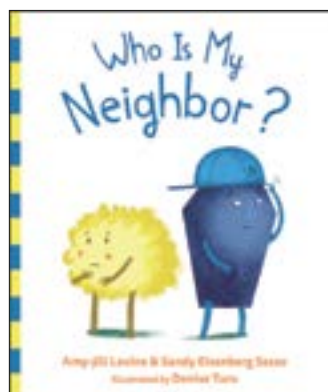

Illustrated by Annie Bowler

A tiny fig tree needs time to grow. But how much time? All four seasons go by . . . and there are no figs. The seasons pass again. Still no figs! Is the fig tree good for nothing?

Inspired by the parable of the Barren Fig Tree, The Good for Nothing Tree reminds us that the sweetest figs, like many other things, are worth waiting for. Not every tree—and not every child—grows at the same pace. Yet patience, care, and love can change everything, making what may appear “good for nothing” very good.

A note about the parable’s New Testament origins and a recipe are included.

THE SOUL OF A NATION

Steve Lytch

Beginning with Joshua, Unit I looks at ancient Israel's entry into the Promised Land. Establishing ancient Israel's presence in Canaan is as much a spiritual task as a military or political task. Still, Joshua never achieved unity for God's people by any measure. What Joshua leaves undone at the end of his life sets the stage for the period of Judges. Unit II looks to Judges, highlighting Israel's propensity to ignore God and God's ways. In Unit III we meet Samuel and see how his faithfulness to the Lord as prophet and judge plays a pivotal role in Israel's history. It sets the stage for the glorious reign of King David, who will unite the biblical kingdom of Israel geographically, politically, and spiritually.

POWER TO THE PEOPLE

Sue Washburn

This quarter focuses on powerful living for powerless people. The love letters of 1 and 2 Peter; 1, 2, and 3 John; and Jude encourage the diaspora—the newly converted, persecuted, and now scattered church—to demonstrate the way of Christ by living holy lives. This primarily Gentile church includes women and slaves who are living in a culturally hostile environment. To these social outcasts, 2 Peter 1:3 says, "His divine power has given us everything needed for life and godliness." John's love letters expand on this theme, stressing the importance of living in God's light and love. Jude's short letter propels believers to defend God's Word and live in and through God's love.

WRITTEN THAT YOU MIGHT BELIEVE

This quarter is a survey of the Gospel of John. John uses rich imagery and metaphors to testify to the truth of who Jesus is—he is the Son of God, the Messiah. Following the Easter narrative, the lessons in this quarter begin with John's prologue, followed by John the Baptist's testimony about Jesus, and the Fourth Gospel's record of Jesus's journey to the cross and the empty tomb. In Unit II, we study some of the "signs" Jesus performed and the reactions they engendered. From there, we move to Unit III to review the proclamations Jesus made through his "I am" statements and his promises of power and peace to those who believe and follow.

This quarter covers the New Testament letters to Ephesians, Philippians, Colossians, and Philemon. Unit I explores how we conduct ourselves in a sin-soaked world—putting off the old self and putting on the new—to find how best to respond to Christ's new thing as our lifelong task as followers of Christ. Unit II offers lessons from Paul's example of advocating for freedom and justice while trying to maintain the Christian walk. Unit III offers us lessons on cause and effect. The cause of Christianity is the person and work of Christ. The effect should honor him.

"We found the author's work to be captivating and love the way she tied everything together, from stepping into the Word and going out into the world. We learned so much about the Bible and how to share it. Our discussions were lively and deep at the same time.

The leader's guide was extraordinarily beneficial. As the facilitator of our groups, I found the guidance invaluable. The leader's guide does an excellent job organizing questions, suggestions, and information for the lessons.

We have been using The Present Word for years in our church. We appreciate the Uniform Series and all the work you put into this Bible study."

CONVERSATIONS FOR SPIRITUAL GROWTH

NOBLE CHARACTER: THE MARK OF A TRUE CHRISTIAN

The Tea Time Bible study series consists of a leader's guide (download only) and a participant book (print only) to structure a twelve-session study meant for small groups to gather weekly or monthly.

The theme for 2027 is cultivating character. Paul says, "suffering produces perseverance; perseverance, character; and character, hope" (Romans 5:3-4). This study covers twelve topics that encourage and challenge participants to cultivate the character of Jesus Christ.

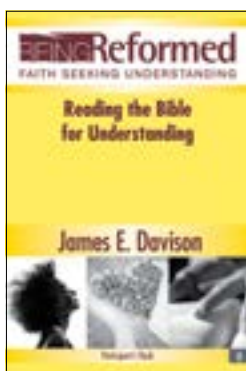

Tea Time in English is translated from the original Korean-language version, which you can learn about on page 38 of this catalog. This is a great resource to use in both single-language and bilingual settings.

BEING PRESBYTERIAN IN A DYSVANGELICAL AMERICA

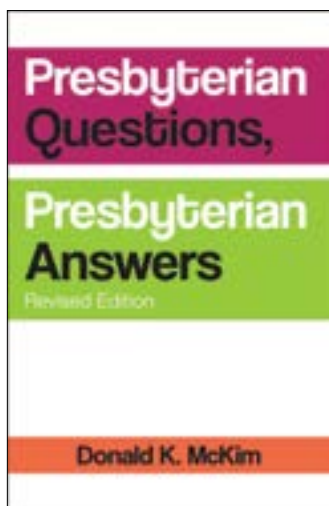

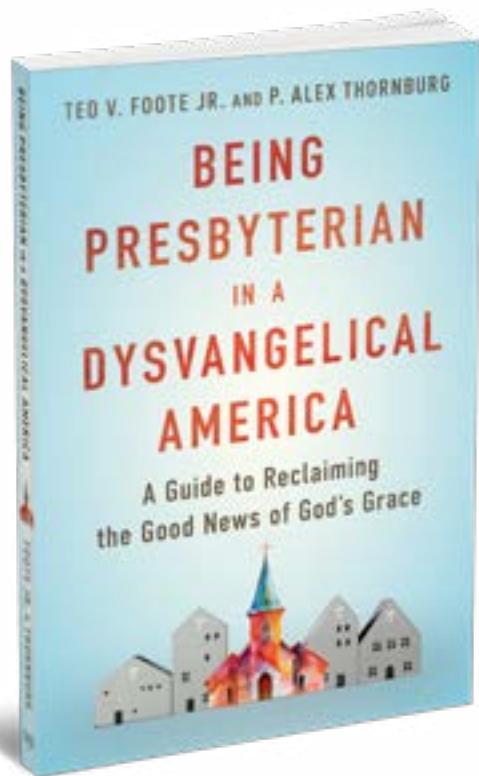

A GUIDE TO RECLAIMING THE GOOD NEWS OF GOD'S GRACE

Ted V. Foote Jr.

P. Alex Thornburg

A forceful form of Christian theology—what the authors call dysvangelicalism—has emerged. Often branded as Christian nationalism, this movement distorts both the gospel and grace into something dysfunctional, dystopian, and far from its intended evangelical character. Ted V. Foote Jr. and P. Alex Thornburg explore this troubling trend in depth. Across eight chapters, they unpack the core characteristics of dysvangelicalism while equipping Presbyterians and others to reclaim their faith and invest themselves in grace, inclusion, and a commitment to God's wholeness for the world.

WHAT KIND OF CHRISTIANITY

A HISTORY OF SLAVERY AND ANTI-BLACK RACISM IN THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

William Yoo

In What Kind of Christianity, William Yoo shows the complicity of the majority of Presbyterians in promoting, supporting, or willfully ignoring the enslavement of other human beings. In doing so, Yoo demonstrates that to understand how Presbyterian Christians can promote racial justice today, they must first understand and acknowledge how deeply racial injustice is embedded in their history and identity as a denomination.

SECOND THOUGHTS ABOUT HELL

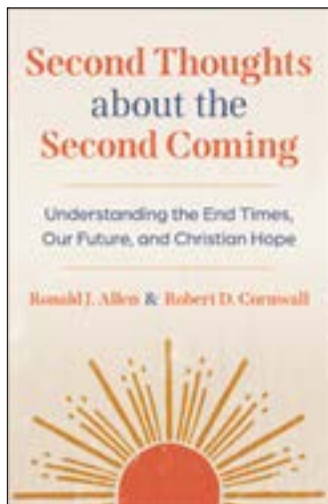

UNDERSTANDING WHAT WE BELIEVE

Ronald J. Allen and Robert D. Cornwall

What should we believe about hell? Instead of offering a prescriptive, one-size-fits-all answer, this book guides the reader through how hell has been understood over time, pointing out the three main Christian views today—literalism (hell exists, and those there will suffer for eternity), annihilationism (the punishment of hell is limited and leads to the extinction of the sufferer), and universalism (everyone is saved, so hell does not exist). Through describing and explaining these different points of view, Allen and Cornwall allow the reader to decide what view(s) of hell make the most theological and ethical sense to them.

The book includes a study guide, making it an excellent resource for group study. An online resource designed for pastors who want to design topical and lectionary-based sermon series on hell is also available.

APPRECIATE THESE THINGS

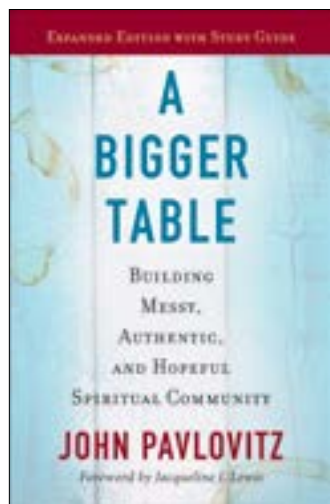

EIGHT WAYS OF CULTIVATING COMPASSION

Jill J. Duffield

In a world tense with anger and division, how can we preserve our sense of well-being and inject a little more kindness into our daily interactions? Pastor Jill J. Duffield finds an answer in the apostle Paul's guidance in Philippians 4:8: "Whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things." Thinking about, looking for, and appreciating these eight things can reorient our hearts and minds in ways that nurture compassion for ourselves, those in need, and those with whom we are inclined to disagree.

With eight chapters of six reflections each, Appreciate These Things can serve as a daily devotional; an eight-week group study; or an accessible, inspirational individual read. Additional downloadable resources assist with group study and preaching.

RECKONING WITH HISTORY

SETTLER COLONIALISM, SLAVERY, AND THE MAKING OF AMERICAN CHRISTIANITY

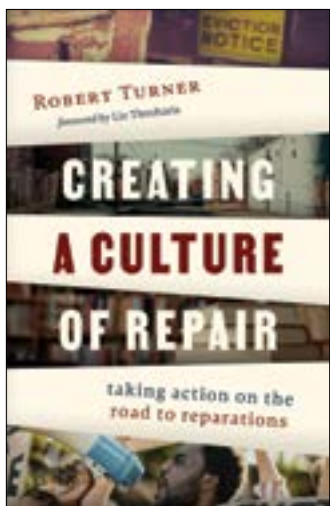

William Yoo

Reckoning with History confronts the histories of settler colonialism and slavery and illuminates how these two devastating realities informed and ultimately deformed Protestant Christianity in the United States.

This urgently needed book expresses a powerful call for reformation and change within American Christianity. It explains how Christians engaged the sinful realities of Indigenous land dispossession and Black enslavement, shaping American Christianity in distinctive and enduring ways.

William Yoo also draws lessons from these histories for the possibilities of what ministries of racial justice could be in American churches today. He integrates cogent historical analysis with contemporary lessons for Christians that make Reckoning with History a definitive resource for understanding racism and pursuing racial justice in the United States. An online study guide helps groups understand and discuss these important yet challenging topics.

CONVERSATIONS FOR SPIRITUAL GROWTH

Age Groupings: Adult

Overview: 지금까지 구역이나 셀에서 사용해 오던 <가정 공동체 말씀>을 2026년 부터는 <티 타임:영적 성장을 위한 대화>라는 제목으로 새롭게 개편됨을 알려드립니다. 제목을 바꾸게 된 이유는 한인 교회들이 전통적으로 구역/셀 모임을 가정에서 모였지만, 현대 사회에서는 가정보다 편리하고 편안한 장소들에서 모이고 있기 때문입니다. 또 하나의 이유는 이 교재가 한 사람이 가르치고 다른 사람들은 배우는 전통적인 교재와 달리, 성도들이 편리한 장소에 모여서 차나 커피를 마시면서 다양한 신앙의 주제들을 가지고 편안하게 대화를 나누게 하는 대화 위주의 교재이기 때문입니다.

킹덤 라이프 KINGDOM LIFE

Age Groupings: Adult

Overview: ‘킹덤 라이프’는 성경 전체를 관통하는 핵심 주제이며 예수님의 공생애 사역의 핵심이었던 ‘하나님 나라’의 백성답게 살아가는 것이 무엇인지를 배우고, 배운 것을 일상 속에서 훈련하며 살아가는데 도움을 주고자 하는 목적으로 고안된 교재이다. 방법은 인도자가 일방적으로 가르치는 교수식이 아니라, 참가자들의 참여를 유도하여 자신의 삶을 함께 나누게 하는 나눔식이다. 말씀에 기초한 생각들을 서로 나누는 가운데 깨달음을 얻고, 깨달은 바를 실천해 나감으로써 하나님 나라 백성답게 변화되어 가면서 교회와 이웃에 하나님 나라를 이루어 가도록 돕는 것이 “킹덤 라이프”가 지향하는 목표이다.

광야를 걷다
WALKING IN THE WILDERNESS
조원태 목사 / (Rev. Won Tae Cho)
성경에서 광야는 예수 그리스도의 보혈의 은혜를 통해 하나님의 백성이 된 자들이 하나님의 입에서 나오는 모든 말씀대로 사는 훈련을 하는 곳입니다. 하나님은 유월절 어린 양의 보혈을 통해 최악의 땅 애굽에서 이스라엘 백성을 해방시키신 후 바로 광야의 길을 걷게 하셨습니다. 그 이유는 그들이 애굽의 왕 바로의 말이 아닌 만왕의 왕이신 하나님의 말씀대로 사는 훈련을 시키시기 위함이었습니다 (신 8:2-3참조). 사순절 묵상집 <광야를 걷다>를 가지고 울 사순절을 지내면서, 우리 모두가 하나님의 입에서 나오는 모든 말씀대로 사는 훈련을 잘 통과할 수 있으면 좋겠습니다.
