

Love God, Love Others

God's people learn that loving God and loving others are the most important things they can do.