

Loving Each Other

Keep loving each other like family. Don't neglect to open up your homes to guests, because by doing this some have been hosts to angels without knowing it. Remember prisoners as if you were in prison with them, and people who are mistreated as if you were in their place. . . .

Your way of life should be free from the love of money, and you should be content with what you have. After all, he has said, "I will never leave you or abandon you." This is why we can confidently say,

The Lord is my helper,
and I won't be afraid.
What can people do to me?

. . . So let's continually offer up a sacrifice of praise through him, which is the fruit from our lips that confess his name. Don't forget to do good and to share what you have because God is pleased with these kinds of sacrifices.*

—Hebrews 13:1–3, 5–6, 15–16*

Welcome Ways

You can offer God's love and welcome to people each day by what you say and what you do. If you were in this scene, what could you say or do to offer God's love and welcome? Draw yourself in the picture.
