In this book, readers explore how faith is required to produce food and how that faith can lead us all to feast at the table on Easter morning. Themes of soil, water, time, fasting, feasting, and more guide the way from Ash Wednesday to Easter Sunday. Additional elements enhance communal spiritual practice for small groups or the congregation during Lent., including sermon prompts, liturgies with communal responses, altar art ideas for decorating worship spaces, and prompts for children's time in worship.	This daily devotional for Lent reflects on ten ordinary objects that Jesus would have encountered on his way to Jerusalem: dust, bread, the cross, coins, shoes, oil, coats, towels, thorns, and stones. Each week, from Ash Wednesday to Easter, readers encounter a new object through Scripture, prayer, and reflection. To help churches who wish to use this book as part of group study or worship services, the publisher has created a digital resources packet. You can download this packet for free at www.wjkbooks.com/LentInPlainSight	Lent, a time to reflect on our Christian journey, is an appropriate time to deepen our understanding and practice of forgiveness. In six brief chapters, Thompson uses biblical examples and real-life situations to illustrate each chapter's theme in an informative and engaging way. A study guide is also included at the back of the book that is appropriate for either individual reflection or group discussion.	African American spirituals provide profound insights into the human condition and many focus on the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, and the ways in which those events bring about the liberation of God's people. In these devotions for the season of Lent, Powery provides readers with the lyrics of a spiritual, a reflection on the spiritual's meaning, a Scripture verse related to that meaning, and a brief prayer.	From Hagar and the Hebrew prophets to Jesus in the wilderness to St. Francis and Catherine of Siena, we see how escape from the toil and temptations of daily life can open our eyes, ears, minds, and hearts to the still, small voice of God. Holy Solitude offers daily reflections for the season of Lent and introduces readers to figures in both Scripture and Christian history whose stories of discernment and discipline are a guide for our own spiritual practices.	Each of the forty devotions includes the testimony of a person who escaped slavery through the Underground Railroad, a Scripture passage, and a reflection connecting biblical and historical themes to challenge modern readers to work for liberation. Lent for Everyone: Matthew, Year A provides readers with an inspirational guide through the Lenten season, from Ash Wednesday through the week after Easter. Wright provides his own Scripture translation, a brief reflection, and a prayer for each day of the season. Suitable for both individual and group study and reflection.	Rowan Williams presents the Gospel accounts of Jesus' crucifixion and resurrection as viewed through the eyes of those who witnessed them. The Sign and the Sacrifice explores the meaning of the cross and the significance of Christ's resurrection, discussing what these events meant to Jesus' followers in the early years and what they can say to us today. Questions for discussion included.	In this imaginative retelling, John Pritchard explores the Gospel of Luke by looking through the eyes of the disciple John. Perfect for individual or group study, The Journey to Jerusalem provides weekday readings for Lent, from Ash Wednesday to Good Friday, along with a poem for each Saturday. Questions for reflection and discussion are also included.	In 40 Days, 40 Prayers, 40 Words , Reyes-Chow encourages readers to pause in the bustle of their daily lives. Forty devotions are each framed around a word inspired by the daily lectionary readings and include a short scriptural passage, prayer, and reflection.	Interrupting Silence illustrates that the Bible is filled with stories where marginalized people break repressive silence and speak against it. Brueggemann motivates readers to consider situations in their lives where they need to interrupt silence to act for justice. The themes explored through eight chapters are a unique Lenten study experience. Questions for discussion included for each chapter.	Lent recalls times of wilderness and wandering. Despite our culture of self-indulgence, we too are called to walk an alternative path—one of humility, justice, and peace. Brueggemann's thought-provoking reflections for the season of Lent invite us to consider the challenging, beautiful life that comes with walking the way of grace.

BOOKS FOR PREACHING & WORSHIP

Invasion of the Dead Preaching Resurrection	Preaching the Atonement	Feasting on the Word Lenten Companion A Thematic Resource for Preaching and Worship
Brian K. Blount	Peter K. Stevenson & Stephen I. Wright	Edited by Kimberly Bracken Long, David L. Bartlett, & Barbara Brown Taylor
$25.00 $16.25 * ISBN: 9780664239411	$32.00 $20.80 * ISBN: 9780664233280	$42.00 $27.30 * ISBN: 9780664261122
Brian K. Blount helps preachers effectively proclaim resurrection in a world consumed by death. Recognizing that both popular culture and popular Christianity are mesmerized by death and dying, Blount offers an alternative apocalyptic vision for our time—one that starts with a clear vision of life that obliterates death and reveals life's essence. Blount explores the portrait and meaning of resurrection through the New Testament and explores how to biblically and theologically reconfigure apocalyptic preaching for today. With three illustrative sermons, this book is an ideal resource to help preachers proclaim the power of resurrection.	Preaching the Atonement is a unique teaching tool that offers a theological discussion of ten important Bible passages connected with the sacrifice of Christ. Each chapter includes a complete sermon on the passage in question followed by a discussion from the authors that highlights the preacher's strategy in the theological interpretation of the text and its incorporation into the rhetoric of the sermon.	This resource is an all-in-one worship companion designed for those who do not follow the lectionary, or would like an alternative to the lectionary during Lent. This pastor's companion for Lent and Holy Week offers pastors focused resources for sermon preparation along with ready-to-use liturgies. A complete order of service is provided for each of the Sundays in Lent, plus Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday, and Easter Sunday. Hymn suggestions, midweek services, and children's sermon suggestions make this an invaluable resource for the season of Lent.
